

COUNCIL WEEKLY UPDATE

October 6, 2022

PLANNING

Ocean Kamp – An appeal of the Planning Commission’s recent decision to approve the Ocean Kamp project will be considered by City Council at its October 19 meeting.

General Plan Update Phase 2 Open House Meetings – On October 18 and 26, the Planning Division will host open house events in support of the second phase of the General Plan Update. These events will provide information and solicit community input on the six General Plan elements currently being updated.

- The October 18 event will focus on the Efficient & Compatible Land Use Element (ECLU), the Integrated Mobility Element (IM), and the Remarkable Community Element (RC).
- The October 26 event will focus on the Vital and Sustainable Resources Element (VSR), the Healthy and Livable Community Element (HLE), and the Safe and Resilient Environment Element (SRE).

Originally, the open house for the ECLU, IM, and RC was scheduled for October 11. Planning staff is working with our consultant partners and City communication staff to make community members aware of this change in the schedule.

Ocean Creek Mixed-use Development – The Planning Commission is scheduled to consider the project at its regularly scheduled meeting on October 10.

ENGINEERING

Pier View Way Bridge and Lifeguard Headquarters – Staff is coordinating City Council briefings for the project, and a community outreach meeting is anticipated for early November 2022.

Beachfront Improvement Feasibility Study Phase II – The study will be presented at a Special Parks and Recreation Commission meeting on October 12 for review and formal recommendation to City Council. The study is anticipated to be considered by the City Council as a workshop item on October 26.

Brooks Street ADA Sidewalk Project – A ribbon-cutting ceremony for this CDBG-funded project is scheduled for October 24 at 5 p.m.

New Fire Station No. 1 – Demolition work and cleanup continued this week.

Oceanside Navigation Center – The fire sprinkler and fire alarm contracts are being executed this week. The contractor continued coordinating the existing storm drain line with the new lateral sewer work, building new walls, and completing electrical rough-in. The contractor will begin relocating the electrical panel in the coming week.

HOUSING & NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICES

Crown Heights Resource Center Fall Festival – Housing & Neighborhood Services has partnered with the Crown Heights community and North County Lifeline to host the Crown Heights Resource Center Fall Festival on Friday, October 28 from 5:00 – 8:00 p.m. The event will feature a variety of carnival-style booths with games and prizes, music, and food. All are welcome to attend and participate. For questions, contact Crown Heights Resource Center staff, Lleymi Martinez Arango at (760) 435-3339 or Esmeralda Gonzalez Jimenez at (760) 435-5647.

PARKS & RECREATION

Movie at the Pier - After being rescheduled due to weather, Parks & Recreation will be showing the Raya and the Last Dragon on Saturday, October 15 at the Junior Seau Pier Amphitheater. Parks and Recreation staff will be onsite beginning at 4:00 p.m. conducting games and activities. The movie will begin at approximately 6:00 p.m.

Oceanside Sports Groups Highlighted

In an effort to highlight organizations and the partnerships the Parks & Recreation Department facilitates, staff has been collaborating on promotional videos. The first video, featuring the long-time partnership with Oceanside Pop Warner was released this week and may be viewed here. Look for more videos in the coming weeks with different organizations as Parks & Recreation staff work alongside these groups to promote their efforts and outstanding work.
