

COUNCIL WEEKLY UPDATE

October 20, 2022

PLANNING

General Plan Update Phase 2 – On October 18, the Planning Division hosted an open house event (pictured below) in support of the second phase of the General Plan Update, with specific focus on the Efficient & Compatible Land Use Element, the Integrated Mobility Element, and the Remarkable Community Element. Next week's second open house on October 26 will focus on the Vital and Sustainable Resources Element, the Healthy and Livable Community Element, and the Safe and Resilient Environment Element.

ENGINEERING

New Fire Station 1 – Demolition of the site is complete. Grading operations started this week; grading/excavation is anticipated to be completed by October 26. Temporary power will be installed this week. Rincon Tribal representatives will be present on-site for grading activities.

Pier View Way Bridge and Lifeguard Headquarters – The second project outreach meeting is scheduled for November 10 at 6:30 p.m. in the Civic Center Library Community Rooms. Please visit the project specific webpage for information.

Brooks Street ADA Sidewalk Project – The rapid flashing beacon crosswalk was installed at the site on October 14. With installation of the rapid flashing beacons, the project is now complete. A community celebration is scheduled for October 24 at La Casita (402 Brooks Street).

PUBLIC WORKS

San Luis Rey River Flood Control Project Mowing

The Public Works Department has completed the mowing operations for 2022, which began September 19. Approximately 80 acres were mowed within the Phase 1 and 2 sections of the San Luis Rey River Flood Control Project. Public Works staff will continue maintenance obligations into the 2023.

PARKS & RECREATION

Senior Citizen of the Year – The Parks and Recreation Department is planning the “Senior Citizen of the Year” program:

- The announcement of the program and applications will be made next week
- Applications will be accepted November 1 through November 30
- Several members of the Parks & Recreation Commission will serve on a selection team
- The application review and selection process will be complete by December 20
- A special Luncheon and ceremony will be held in early 2023

New Senior Programming - More new programming is being offered at Oceanside Senior Centers.

- At the Country Club Senior Center, Beginning Yoga is now being offered Mondays from 10:00 -11:00 a.m. and Tai Chi Tuesday from 9:00 -10:00 a.m. As always, the nutrition program is offered Monday-Friday at Country Club Senior Center beginning at 11:00 a.m., seniors are asked to call for 760-435-5285 for reservations.
- At the El Corazon Senior Center, Ukulele is offered on Mondays from 9:30-11:30 a.m., Line Dancing on Tuesdays from 10:00 -11:30 a.m., and Tai Chi is offered Fridays from 9:00 -10:00 a.m. All classes are free, but require pre-registration, which can be done in person at any center or at www.oceansiderec.com and clicking the "Register Now" button.

O'side Hoops Recreational Basketball League - The Parks and Recreation Department's new Youth Basketball League, O'side Hoops, is off and running. The new league has over 125 participants, and is teaching discipline, teamwork, and skills. The fall season is currently underway at the Melba Bishop Recreation Center. It's anticipated the winter session, with higher enrollment, will expand to the Junior Seau Beach Community Center. A highlight of the program may be found here.
