NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICES

OCSP GRANT APPLICATIONS. We received official notice that The City of Oceanside was unsuccessful in our OJJDP Community-Based Violence Prevention Program 2012 grant application submitted in May which sought funds for suppression, prevention, and intervention activities in the Eastside and Crown Heights neighborhoods for three years. We knew this would be a very competitive grant and four grants were awarded from sixty-four applications. The grants went to Los Angeles, Detroit, Philadelphia and Baton Rouge.

We are submitting a grant application through OCSP/OPD for the current CalGRIP RFP to fund youth programs and OPD-Directed Patrol activities in Eastside and Crown Heights from 1/1/2013 through 12/31/2014. That application is critical, as the current CalGRIP grant funding youth programs and OPD activities in these two neighborhoods ends 12/31/12.

Our CalGRIP grant for the Libby Lake/Back Gate area which was effective 7/1/2012 runs through 12/31/2013 and funds the REACH Program at Libby Lake Community Center for one year and OPD-Directed Patrol activities in the area for 18 months.
