Historical Museum temporarily closed

The Oceanside Historical Museum located at 305 North Nevada Street will be closed until the end of January 2008 for interior improvements. Work will include interior repair and painting, preparation of new displays and an improved Web site. The Museum is operated by the Oceanside Historical Society; the Society will host a re-opening in February. For more information call (760) 722-4786.

Underage Drinking Forum

The North Coastal Prevention Youth Coalition, in collaboration with MADD, Oceanside Unified School District, and the City of Oceanside, will host its fourth Community Forum on Underage Drinking. The forum will be held Tuesday, November 13, 6:00 to 8:30 p.m., in the Truax Theatre at El Camino High School. For additional information regarding event details contact Holly Hepburn, Prevention Specialist with the Tri City Prevention Collaborative at (760) 407-1220 ext. 146.

City Council Video Streaming

Information Technologies recently completed an upgrade to the streaming media service which is used to stream City Council meetings across the World Wide Web. The enhanced system provides improved video quality and doubles the number of available live video feeds which can be viewed by the public.

In conjunction with the improvements to the City Council video stream, Information Technologies and KOCT have partnered together in streaming Channel 18.

Channel 18 can be viewed at www.koct.org and Channel 19 can be viewed at www.ci.oceanside.ca.us.

iNet System

The microwave system at both El Camino and Oceanside High Schools are operational; staff expects to stream the first live football game with the cooperation of KOCT on October 19.
